About Putney School of Art and Design

Putney School of Art and Design was originally founded in 1883, and has been in Oxford Road, Putney since 1895. The main benefactor of the original Victorian school was Sir William Lancaster, an eminent local politician and philanthropist.

The school offers art and design courses, including painting, drawing, pottery, photography, sculpture, printmaking as well as more specialised courses including the Art and Design Diploma, family learning for parent and child working together, and courses for young people aged 13–17 years.

About Enable

Enable is a not-for-profit organisation, working in partnership with councils, charities and other organisations to deliver health, leisure and community services and events that enrich people's lives. We go further, reinvesting any profit from our activities to make an even bigger difference, strengthening the communities we work with. Putney School of Art and Design is brought to you by Enable, in partnership with Wandsworth Council.

Courses for adults

Good Artists Copy, Great Artists Steal: Cezanne and the Expressionists

| Tutor: Ian Ellis

This painting course explores how Cezanne's work influenced the Expressionist movements and modern masters of the twentieth century, including German Expressionism, Picasso, Matisse, Beckmann, Soutine, and Lucian Freud.

Day 1: We will discuss Cezanne's innovative approach to painting, particularly his unique ability to create "imaginary space." We will focus on how his understanding of space shaped the work of later artists. You will also study and select an Expressionist painting to analyse, with demonstrations provided to deepen your understanding.

Day 2: You'll work from photographs of landscapes, portraits, or still life, applying the concepts discussed on Day 1 to create your own small-scale Expressionist studies.

Day 3: You will use one or more of your studies to create a large-scale Expressionist painting.

The aim of this course is to draw inspiration from Cezanne and the artists he influenced, helping you refine and enhance your painting skills.

Drawing & Pastels | Tutor: Paul Dixon

A one-day workshop exploring chalk pastels. Known for its vibrant effects, chalk pastel is a great medium, combining colour and drawing with an expressive immediacy. We will be working from still life and you will learn and develop pastel techniques beginning with a broad approach to suggesting details. If you enjoy drawing but feel that colour is something that you wish to add to your repertoire, chalk pastel is an ideal medium for you.

2 Days: Experimental Printmaking | Tutor: Melanie Bellis

The two days will provide opportunities for you to explore all aspects of relief printing including Linoleum cut, Collagraph, Mono-type, Mono-print, Mono-drawing and hybrid combinations. You will develop ideas as you experiment with processes and techniques, images and textures. Students attending range from beginners to experienced printers and the sharing of skills and knowledge benefits all in this lively class. Through demonstrations and individual support for students in gaining understanding of media and processes, you will be encouraged to develop original and well executed printed outcomes.

2 Days: Screenprinting Workshop (Beginners)

| Tutor: Katie Preston

For beginners and a refresher for those with previous experience of screen printing, the course aims to cover the core principles of screen printing for beginners and provide those familiar with the practice an opportunity to have 3 full days of printing to consolidate a project or work on something new. For those new to screen printing - please bring an image with you that you would turn into a screen print. This could simply be something from your sketch book, a drawing or painting that you have made in another class or a photograph that you have taken.

2 Days: Screenprinting workshop (Inter / Adv)

| Tutor: Katie Preston

For students with previous experience of screen printing, the course will provide an opportunity to have 3 full days of printing to consolidate a project or work on something new. For those new to screen printing - please bring an image with you that you would turn into a screen print. Content Creation for Social Media - Canva | Tutor: Cai Chen

On this course you will be introduced to a range of software, that can be used to create graphics and professional-looking social media content to promote your business. Learn to use Canva in just one day!

This course is designed to empower you with the tools and techniques to create eye-catching and effective social media content using Canva, a user-friendly design platform. You'll learn how to design engaging posts, stories, and banners tailored to different platforms, whether it's Instagram, Facebook, TikTok, or any other. We'll cover essential design principles, the use of templates, and tips for optimizing your content to maximize audience engagement.

Social Media Advertising | Tutor: Cai Chen

In this course you will learn how to market your business for free, using Social Media Marketing. Whether you are a business owner, a practicing artist, printmaker or ceramicist wanting to promote your work, this course is an ideal starting point for learning the art of social media advertising.

You will learn how to master social media advertising and marketing, including Instagram, Facebook ads, and other social media platforms. You will explore customer journey and how you can map that to your social media marketing, content creation and sales process. How you can drive traffic to your website using Social Media Marketing and how to create content that will bring people to your site.

3 Days: Pottery Workshop | Tutor: John Dawson

Learn and enjoy the magic of throwing on the wheel or handbuilding, with professional instruction on how to make a range of pottery shapes or a project. These days are suitable for all levels. The course will also provide opportunity to glaze if appropriate.

Pottery: Glazing Workshop | Tutor: Sarah Deeks

This course is aimed at students that want to improve their glazing techniques. Some experience with pottery is expected but not required. This course will go over the common pitfalls of glazing, how to glaze your pots successfully and think about designing your pots for easy glazing.

We will also work on testing glazes and building up a collection of test tiles. The course will also discuss using oxides and colourants, the importance of temperature, and how to mix your own glazes. You will also have instruction on how to use the spraybooth.

Learn to Draw | Tutor: Sophie Ambrose

On this one day 'taster' course, you'll be introduced to some of the basic skills of observational drawing, including line, space, tone and proportion. There'll be demos and plenty of one-to-one attention and examples of artists work to inspire you during this relaxed, friendly class.

Introduction to Watercolour Painting | Tutor: Paul Dixon

You will be taught about colour mixing and a range of watercolour techniques. You will be finding ways to express colour, light and texture using watercolour techniques. Subjects covered will range from simple still lifes and landscape and architecture. We will be experimenting with different ways of using paint and will look at how watercolour painters use various techniques. Your tutor will also demonstrate how to use techniques such as "wet in wet" or "wet on dry" and reserving.

Introduction to Drawing & Colour | Tutor: Sophie Ambrose

On this two-day 'taster' course you will be introduced to some of the basic skills of observational drawing and colour. On day one, we'll focus on drawing skills including line, space, proportion and tone. On day two, we'll focus on colour starting with colour theory/mixing using acrylic paints and creating a painting later in the day. There'll be demos and plenty of one-to-one attention and examples of artists work to inspire you.

Open Studio: Relief Printing | Tutor: Paul Schofield

Open studio Printmaking sessions are available to those that already have experience of relief printing including Lino, Mono print and Collagraph techniques and are interested in developing their own projects. You will be expected to manage the progress of your own work although advice will be available if required.

Painterly Screenprinting | Tutor: Katie Preston

Suitable for those who already have experience of screenprinting but want to bring a painterly depth to their screenprints using blends and handmade stencils created with TruGrain. This is a practical workshop-based course where different techniques will be demonstrated, and you will have a chance to put them into practice. The course will include painterly approaches to layering up colour blends and handmade marks. You will learn how to use TruGrain (a textured acetate) and Tusche (light sensitive liquid) to create and print your own marks.

B&W Darkroom Photography | Tutor: Simon Fernandez

This course is ideal for beginners who have never experienced creating images in a traditional black and white darkroom before. Students will be introduced to printing photographs and contact sheets from negatives, experimenting with light to create photograms, how to print drawings and sketches, and an introduction to digital negatives. On this taster course, you will be taught the basic skills of using a photographic darkroom and the safe use of chemicals to create a number of images. You will have a demonstration on the proper use of darkroom equipment, and different printing techniques to create traditional black and white photos, or more experimental images combining photograms, digital negatives and film. If you would like to process your own black and white film, please let us know in advance.

3 Day Workshop: Introduction to Pottery | Tutor: Sarah Deeks

Learn and enjoy the magic of throwing on the wheel or handbuilding, with professional instruction on how to make a range of pottery shapes or a project. The course will also provide opportunity to glaze if appropriate.

Portrait Drawing (All levels) | Tutor: Eithne Healy

An intensive one-day course working with varied approaches to portrait drawing. Applying some lively and exploratory exercises to observational work, students will test out different drawing materials and approaches to this subject; line, tone and gestural mark-making with a view to creating a unique body of responses on paper.

Life Drawing All Levels | Tutor: Eithne Healy

The course is open to both beginners and the experienced student alike. The emphasis will be on observation, building upon basic principles of drawing and moving towards personal expression through experimentation with various media and techniques.

The aim of the course is to encourage students to develop their drawing and painting skills via access to what some consider the most compelling form, the human body.

Open Studio: Painting | Tutor: Ian Ellis

Open studio painting sessions are available to those that already have experience of working with a painting medium and are interested in progressing their own projects.

You will be expected to manage the progress of your own work although advice will be available if required from an experienced tutor. You will work in a large painting studio with specialist lighting. You can use this time and space to finish existing projects or begin new ones.
